
Contents

Preface ix

The Text of Hard Times

Title Page	1
Dedication	2
The Contents of Hard Times	3
Hard Times	5
A NOTE ON THE TEXT	223
The Genesis of Hard Times : A History of the Text	223
Dickens' Working Plans	225
The Running Headlines	236
Our Text	239
The Textual Notes	240
TEXTUAL NOTES	243
EMENDATIONS LIST	273

Contexts 275

Hard Times Calendar	276
Dickens' Comments on the Composition of Hard Times	277
INDUSTRIALISM	287
[The Preston Strike: A History]	288
[An Ostracized Workman]	291
James Lowe • The Preston Lock-Out	292
Charles Dickens • On Strike	295
Henry Morley • Ground in the Mill	307
Harriet Martineau • The Factory Legislation: A Warning Against Meddling Legislation (Manchester 1855)	309
R. D. Butterworth • Dickens the Novelist: The Preston Strike and Hard Times	312
EDUCATION	325
J. M. M'Culloch • Preface to A Series of Lessons	325

Charles Dickens • [A Conference of Statisticians]	326
• [Joe Whelks and Education]	327
Jane Sinnett • [Dickens as a Critic of Education]	331
Charles Darwin • [Atrophy of Imagination in a Scientist]	333
Philip Collins • [Horses, Flowers, and the Department of Practical Art]	333
UTILITARIANISM AND THE SCIENCE OF
POLITICAL ECONOMY	337
John Stuart Mill • [The Mind and Character of Jeremy Bentham]	338
J. R. McCulloch • [On Adam Smith and Laissez-Faire]	340
• [Malthus and Population]	341
• [Useful Education for the Working Classes]	343
Thomas Carlyle • [The Condition of the Working Class]	345
• [Selling Cheap]	346
E. P. Whipple • [On the Economic Fallacies of Hard Times]	347
Criticism	353
Hippolyte Taine • [The Two Classes of Characters in Hard Times]	355
John Ruskin • A Note on Hard Times	355
George Gissing • [Dickens' Portrayal of the Working Class in Hard Times]	356
Bernard Shaw • Hard Times	357
F. R. Leavis • Hard Times: An Analytic Note	364
Monroe Engel • Hard Times	384
Robert Barnard • Imagery and Theme in Hard Times	387
David Craig • [Hard Times: The Meaning of the Title]	399
David Lodge • How Successful Is Hard Times ?	400
Patricia E. Johnson • Hard Times and the Structure of Industrialism: The Novel as Factory	409
Gorman Beauchamp • Mechanomorphism in Hard Times	419
Martha C. Nussbaum • The Literary Imagination in Public Life	429
David L. Cowles • Having It Both Ways: Gender and Paradox in Hard Times	439
Jean Ferguson Carr • Writing as a Woman: Dickens, Hard Times and Feminine Discourses	445
Eric P. Levy • Dickens' Pathology of Time in Hard Times	455

CONTENTS

vii

Leona Toker • Hard Times and a Critique of Utopia:
A Typological Study

465

Charles Dickens: A Chronology
Selected Bibliography

477

479

CONTENTS.

BOOK THE FIRST.

SOWING.

CHAPTER	PAGE
I. THE ONE THING NEEDFUL	5
II. MURDERING THE INNOCENTS	6
III. A LOOPHOLE.	11
IV. MR. BOUNDERBY	15
V. THE KEY-NOTE	20
VI. SLEARY'S HORSEMANSHIP	25
VII. MRS. SPARSIT	35
VIII. NEVER WONDER	41
IX. SISSY'S PROGRESS	45
X. STEPHEN BLACKPOOL	51
XI. NO WAY OUT.	56
XII. THE OLD WOMAN	61
XIII. RACHAEL.	65
XIV. THE GREAT MANUFACTURER.	71
XV. FATHER AND DAUGHTER	75
XVI. HUSBAND AND WIFE	81

BOOK THE SECOND.

REAPING.

I. EFFECTS IN THE BANK	85
II. MR. JAMES HARTHOUSE	96

CHAPTER	PAGE
III. THE WHELP 102
IV. MEN AND BROTHERS. 106
V. MEN AND MASTERS 112
VI. FADING AWAY 117
VII. GUNPOWDER. 126
VIII. EXPLOSION 136
IX. HEARING THE LAST OF IT 146
X. MRS. SPARSIT'S STAIRCASE 152
XI. LOWER AND LOWER 156
XII. DOWN 162

BOOK THE THIRD.

GARNERING.

I. ANOTHER THING NEEDFUL 166
II. VERY RIDICULOUS 170
III. VERY DECIDED 177
IV. LOST. 184
V. FOUND 191
VI. THE STARLIGHT 197
VII. WHELP-HUNTING 205
VIII. PHILOSOPHICAL 213
IX. FINAL 218

