

REVISION WORK

1. One of the best films I have ever seen was called 'The Treasure of the Incas.'
2. I get up at 6 o'clock every day even in the winter, Anyway, I am supposed to.
3. We can't enjoy ourselves very much because we get insufficient pocket money.
4. Along with my friends, I visited Jehangir's Tomb, which is one and a half miles to the north of Lahore. It's a building worth seeing. Anyhow, I think so.
5. A few weeks ago we went in the School bus to the river Chenab. We left at 6:15 a.m.
6. I usually go to bed as soon as I finish my preparation work (homework).
7. Having had a bath, I put on my evening dress and went to the dining hall.
8. No sooner did the train reach Lahore Station than I saw the rest of the family.
9. When I was 12 years of age and in Class-VII, I experienced a memorable incident.
10. I have been studying at the PAF Public School, Sargodha, for the last 4 years.
11. Many senior boys smoke and they can't give it up. In this way they spoil their health. They think it, a manly habit, but it's really a waste of money.
12. After some time the bus arrived and we all got in it. We were all beside ourselves with joy. We enjoyed many a joke on the way. It was great fun.

13. We travelled through space at a speed of 17,000 m.p.h. and soon reached the moon.
14. A member of the Staff, who was in the cinema spotted us. Thus we had bad luck.
15. The Guest of Honour, Air Marshal Asghar Khan, then delivered a speech. He congratulated our House on winning the Chigwell Shield.
16. Being fed up with work, I put my books in my cupboard and went to the canteen.
17. My friend and I made up our minds to see a film. We did not get permission to go.
18. I devote my spare time to my favourite hobby, which is aero-modelling.
19. As the glider gathered speed, I eased the stick back, keeping the wings level.
20. After the prayers are over, the people wish one another a happy Eid.
21. Although my brother is older than I am, we are both in the same class.
22. After taking my SSC. Examination, I shall apply for the Air Force.
23. They are both good at studies but neither of them is any good at games.
24. There was a great crowd round the stall where sweetmeats and fruit were sold.
25. It is essential that boys should play games, such as football, hockey and so on.

26. It seemed as if we must be caught. Our Housemaster, however, did not see us.
27. If one studies at a boarding school, one learns to look after oneself.
28. Most people eat vermicelli on Eid day, It's the most popular dish.
29. We take out our books before breakfast as classes start just after breakfast.
30. As we passed a large number of buses, our clothes got covered with dust.
31. We received four days' holiday for Eid so about a hundred boys went home. The remaining boys had to stay at the School. It was bad luck for them.
32. I had only 2 rupees. Moreover, none of my friends was willing to lend me anything. I felt very upset about it. I was the only boy who had to stay behind.
33. The tiger, which is found only in East Pakistan, is a magnificent creature.
34. At a boarding school boys sometimes don't get enough nourishing food. This affects their health. In fact, this is one of the chief disadvantages.
35. The other day we went fishing and our boat nearly sank. It was a close shave.
36. Rashid, our captain, having won the toss, elected to bat. Most of our batsmen were caught off their opening bowlers and our innings closed for 75 runs. Our opponents passed our total for the loss of 3 wickets.
37. The score at half-time was 1 1. Just at the beginning of the second half their outside-left, having dribbled past our right-half, put in a good centre and their centre-forward kicked the ball into the goal. But when there were only two minutes left, we scored the equalizer. This was one of the best games I have seen so far.

38. To conclude, I consider that the advantages of television far outweigh the disadvantages. After all, one doesn't have to watch the bad programmes.

39. I was busy    studying when one of my friends    came and invited me to dinner.

40. I don't think that I shall ever forget this day as long as I live.

41. I knew that the Principal would not let me go if I asked his permission.

42. I thought that I had better explain to my father all that had happened.

43. I spent the time looking out of the window at the passing scenery.

44. Scarcely (Hardly) had the train stopped at Lahore Station when my friend, who was waiting on the platform, came and greeted me. He accompanied me as far as Multan.

45. I suggested to my friends that we should get permission to go to the cinema, but they insisted on my accompanying them to the canteen.

46. We decided to have a rest so we lay down in the shade of a tree beside the road.

47. I picked up a stone, which was lying nearby, and threw it at the snake.
