Notice is hereby given that, under Rule 64 of Order XXI of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, an order has been passed by this Court for the sale of the attached property mentioned in the annexed schedule, in satisfaction of Suit No. _____ of 19 _____, the claim of the decree-holder in the _____ decided by the _____ suit mentioned in the margin, amounting _____ of _____ in which _____ with costs and interest up to date of sale _____ was plaintiff _____ to the sum of _____ and _____ was defendant _____

The sale will be public auction, and the property will be put up for sale in the lots specified in the schedule. The sale will be of the property of the judgment-debtors above-named as mentioned in the schedule below; and the liabilities and claims attaching to the said property, so far as they have been ascertained, are those specified in the schedule against each lot.

In the absence of any order of postponement, the sale will be held by _____ at the monthly sale commencing at _____ o'clock on the _____ at _____. In the event, however, of the debt above specified and of the costs of the sale being tendered or paid before the knocking down of any lot the sale will be stopped.

At the sale the public generally are invited to bid, either personally or by duly authorized agent. No bid by, or on behalf of, the judgment-creditors above-mentioned, however, will be accepted, nor will any sale to them be valid without the express permission of the Court previously given. The following are the further—

Condition of sale.

1. The particulars specified in the schedule below have been stated to the best of the information of the Court, but the Court will not be answerable for any error, mis-statement, or omission in this proclamation.

2. The amount by which the biddings are to be increased shall be determined by the officer conducting the sale. In the event of any dispute arising as to the amount bid, or as to the bidder, the lot shall at once be again put up to auction.

3. The highest bidder shall be declared to be the purchaser of any lot, provided always that he is legally qualified to bid, and provided that it shall be in the discretion of the Court or officer holding the sale to decline acceptance of the highest bid when the price offered appears so clearly inadequate as to make it advisable to do so.

4. For reasons recorded, it shall be in the discretion of the officer conducting the sale to adjourn it, subject always to the provisions of rule 69 of Order XXI.

5. The person declared to be the purchaser shall pay immediately after such declaration a deposit of 25 per cent. on the amount of his purchase-money to the officer conducting the sale, and in default of such deposit the property shall forthwith be again put up and resold.

6 The full amount of the purchase-money shall be paid by the purchaser before the Court closes on the fifteenth day after the sale of the property, exclusive of such day, or if the fifteenth day be a Sunday or other holiday, then on the first office day after the fifteenth day.

7. In default of payment of the balance of purchase-money within the period allowed, the property shall be re-sold after the issue of a fresh notification of sale. The deposit, after defraying the expenses of the sale, may, if the Court thinks fit, be forfeited to Government and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the property, or to any part of the sum for which it may be subsequently sold.

Conditions of sale.

(1) The particulars specified in the schedule below have been stated to the best of the information of the Court but the Court will not be answerable for any error, mis-statement or omission in this proclamation.

(2) The amount by which the biddings are to be increased shall be determined by the officer conducting the sale. In the event of any dispute arising as to the amount bid, or as to the bidder, the tenure or holdings shall at once be again put up to auction.

(3) The highest bidder shall be declared to be the purchaser provided always that he is legally qualified to bid, and provided that it shall be in the discretion of the Court or of the officer holding the sale to decline acceptance of the highest bid when the price offered appears so clearly inadequate as to make it advisable to do so.

(4) For reasons recorded, it shall be in the discretion of the officer conducting the sale to adjourn it, subject always to the provisions of Order XXI, Rule 69 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(5) The person declared to be the purchaser shall pay, immediately after such declaration, a deposit of 25 per cent. on the amount of his purchase-money to the officer conducting the sale and in default of such deposit, the tenure or holding shall forthwith be again put up and resold.

(6) The full amount of the purchase-money shall be paid by the purchaser before the Court closes on the fifteenth day after the sale of the tenure or holding, exclusive of such day, or if the fifteenth day be a Sunday or other holiday, then on the first office day after the fifteenth day.

(7) In default of payment of the balance of purchase-money within the period allowed, the tenure or holding shall be re-sold after the issue of a fresh notification of sale. The deposit, after defraying the expenses of the sale, shall be forfeited to Government, and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may be subsequently sold.

FORM No. (P) 64G.

Proclamation of sale of under-tenure free from incumbrances in execution of a decree.

(Section 53, clause 2 of the Cooch Behar Tenancy Act V of 1910.)

Of a tenure or under-tenure free from incumbrances.

In the court of theExecution Proceeding No.of 19 .Decree-holder,Judgment-debtor.

Notice is hereby given that under section 53 of the Cooch Behar Tenancy Act, 1910, an order has been made by this Court for the sale of the tenure (or under-tenure) mentioned in the annexed schedule in satisfaction of the claim of the decree-holder in the suit mentioned in the margin, amounting with costs and interest up to date of sale, to the sum of Rs.

Suit No. _____ of 19 _____ decided by the _____ of _____
 in which _____ was plaintiff and _____ was defendant.

The sale will be by public auction, and the said tenure or under-tenure will be sold free from all incumbrances.

In the absence of any order of postponement the sale will be held by _____ at the monthly sale, commencing at _____ o'clock on the _____ at _____

In the event, however, of the debt above specified and of the costs of the sale being tendered or paid before the tenure or under-tenure is knocked down, the sale will be stopped.

At the sale the public generally are invited to bid, either personally or by duly authorised agent. No bid by or on behalf of the judgment-debtor above-mentioned, however, will be accepted. The following are the further—

Conditions of sale.

1. The particulars specified in the schedule below have been stated to the best of the information of the Court; but the Court will not be answerable for any error, mis-statement or omission in this proclamation.

2. The amount by which the biddings are to be increased shall be determined by the officer conducting the sale. In the event of any dispute arising as to the amount of the bid, or as to the bidder, the lot shall at once be again put up to auction.

3. The highest bidder shall be declared to be the purchaser of any lot, provided always that he is legally qualified to bid, and provided that it shall be in the discretion of the Court or of the officer holding the sale to decline acceptance of the highest bid when the price offered appears so clearly inadequate as to make it advisable to do so.

4. For reasons recorded, it shall be in the discretion of the officer conducting the sale to adjourn it, subject always to the provisions of Or. 21, Rule 69 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

5. The person declared to be the purchaser shall pay immediately after such declaration a deposit of 25 per cent. on the amount of his purchase money to the officer conducting the sale and in default of such deposit, the tenure or under-tenure shall forthwith be put up again and sold.

6. The full amount of the purchase money shall be paid by the purchaser before the Court closes on the fifteenth day after the sale of the tenure or under-tenure, exclusive of such day, or if the fifteenth day be a Sunday or other holiday, then on the first office day after the fifteenth day.

7. In default of payment of the balance of purchase money within the period allowed, the tenure or under-tenure shall be resold after the issue of a fresh notification of sale. The deposit after defraying the expenses of the sale, shall be forfeited to Government and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the tenure or under-tenure or to any part of the sum for which it may be subsequently sold.

Note 1.—First dates of all petitions, appeals, etc., registered should be announced in this list within two days of registration.

Note 2.—Entries may be made in the same list from day to day until the form is exhausted. If the same list is used for miscellaneous cases, appeals, etc., cases should be grouped separately under the different heads. The presiding Judge shall put his dated signature below the last entry for each day and see that the list is laid at some conspicuous part of the Court room daily at the sitting hour.
