Registors.—A separate Register must be maintained for each department on account of which there is a separate allotment for contract contingencies. It should be opened with the allotment on 1st April, the blank money columns being filled in with such headings as are peculiar to the department in addition to those printed.

Classification.—The kinds of payments to be recorded under each head are detailed in Appendix C to the Bengal Treasury Manual. Expenditure must be shown as incurred on the account on which it is made.

contract Contingent Bill.—When it becomes necessary to draw money from the Treasury, the several columns should be totalled, and only the totals of each of the columns should be posted against the printed headings in the contract contingent bill. Permanent advance. The permanent advance must be recouped on the last working day of each month, as also when the charge of office is transferred in the course of the month.

Numbering Bills.—There should be a separate annual series of numbers given to the bills drawn against each allotment.

Allotment.—It must be distinctly borne in mind that, for any excess over allotment, the drawing officer is held personally liable, and that unless he can procure exemption from Government, the amount will be recovered from his personal allowances.

Variations in allotment.—Each increase or decrease should be entored in the columns provided therefor immediately it is known.

Classification .- For heads to be opened by each Drawing Officer, and for kinds of payments falling under each of those heads, see Bengal Treasury Expenditure must be shown as incurred on the account on which it is made. Budget provision existing or Posting Register and preparing Abstract and Detailed Contingent bills.—The principle on which the expenditure is to be posted in the register, Manual, Chapter 6, and Appendix C. Expenditure must be shown as incinot has nothing to do with determining the classification of a charge.

Reponsibility.—The obligations imposed in Arts. 81 and 83 of the Civil Account Code on officors signing bills in respect of initialling unusual charges, and when the register is sent up with an abstract, initialling the date of each payment, should be scrupulously fulfilled. transferred in the course of the month. Acknowledgment of personal responsibility for the permanent advance must be sent to Accountant General Permanent advance. The permanent advance must be recouped on the last working day of each month as also when the charge of office

Month of charge. The month of charge quoted in abstract and detailed bills must be the month in which the charges are paid from the Treasury. As the detailed contingent bill of a month is merely an aggregation of the sums drawn from the Treasury during that month, on transfer of charge, and on 15th April each year.

Inter/departmental transactions.—The rule regarding posting the amount of inter-departmental receipts in Contingent Register after the total of the month's cash transaction has been struck should be carefully carried out. Closing Register for the month.—At the end of a month the register should be completed thus: 1.—Total cash payments of the months; 2.— Payment.—Purchases, etc., must be paid for at once. The discharge of liabilities may not be deferred. should be the sum of the abstracts.

Add amount of the current month's inter-departmental debits; 3. -Add total cash payments and inter-departmental debits to end of last month;

Retrenchments.—A disallowance must, without fail, be refunded by short drawal on the first abstract presented after receipt of disallowance Unnecessary or excess drawings.—Should be refunded by short drawal on subsequent abstract bill or in eash. In both cases the original detailed 4. Grand total expenditure to date.

Sanctions not acted on for a year become void. Detailed bills.—Must be submitted for countersignature by the 1st of the month following that to which they relate. Sanction,—Budget provision does not warrant special and unusual expenditure. Sanctions not acted on for a year head of charge and the total and dute of the abstract on which the amount was drawn should be quoted.

Note 1.—In order to preserve uniformity of arrangement, forms should be entered in this register in the order in which they are shown in the printed forms of indent. A page index should be prefaced to each volume, the printed "description of form" in the annual indent being conveniently pasted at the commencement of the volume, with the page numbers upon which each form will be found, shown against each entry.

Note 2.—The balance should be struck after each transaction and the balance on the 30th June and 31st December of each year shall be verified by counting all the forms and a note of verification made in the remarks column on each page of the stock book.

Note 3 .- Receipts in red ink and issues in black ink.

Note 4.—The "forms year" differs for different classes of form. It is shown in Appendix F, Bengal Forms Manual, and abstract of which (for the forms in use) should be kept pasted on a card in the Forms Room.

Note 5.—Running annual totals of receipts and issues to be kept. This facilitates the preparation of indents, showing at once the annual consumption.

Note 6.—The balances to be checked periodically by the Judge in charge and the fact of such examination having been made together with such instructions or remarks as may appear necessary shall be entered by him.

Column 6.—This, in the case of forms received on indent, will be the signature of the officer-in-charge of forms; in the case of forms issued for use, it will be the signature of the officer to whom the forms are made over.
